 - (a) if an access fee is payable, upon payment of that fee; or
 - (b) if no access fee is payable, immediately, be given access in the applicable forms referred to in subsection (2) as the requester indicated in the request, and in the language contemplated in section 31.

- (2) The forms of access to a record in respect of which a request of access has been granted, are the following:
- (a) If the record is in written or printed form, by supplying a copy of the record or by making arrangements for the inspection of the record;
 - (b) if the record is not in written or printed form-

 - (c) amount to an infringement of copyright not owned by the State or the public body concerned.
- (4) If a requester has requested access in a particular form and for a reason referred to in subsection (3) access in that form is refused but access is given in another form, the fee charged may not exceed what would have been charged if that requester had been given access in the form requested.
- (5) If a requester with a disability is prevented by that disability from reading, viewing or listening to the record concerned in the form in which it is held by the public body concerned, the information officer of the body must, if that requester so requests, take reasonable steps to make the record available in a form in which it is capable of being read, viewed or heard by the requester.
- (6) If a record is made available in accordance with subsection (5), the requester may not be required to pay an access fee which is more than the fee which he or she would have been required to pay but for the disability.
- (7) If a record is made available in terms of this section to a requester for inspection, viewing or hearing, the requester may make copies of or transcribe the record using the requester's equipment, unless to do so would-

- (a) decide in accordance with this Act whether to grant the request; and

- (b) notify the requester of the decision and, if the requester stated, as contemplated in section 18 (2) (e), that he or she wishes to be informed of the decision in any other manner, inform him or her in that manner if it is reasonably possible.

- (3) If the request for access is refused, the notice in terms of subsection (1) 9b) must-
- (a) state adequate reasons for the refusal, including the provisions of this Act relied upon;
 - (b) exclude, from such reasons, any reference to the content of the record; and
 - (c) state that the requester may lodge an internal appeal or an application with a court, as the case may be, against the refusal of the request, and the procedure (including the period) for lodging the internal appeal or application, as the case may be.

Transfer of Request

- (1) If a request for access is made to the information officer of a public body in respect of which-
- (a) the record is not in the possession or under the control of that body but is in the possession of another public body;
 - (b) the record's subject matter is more closely connected with the functions of another public body than those of the public body of the IO to whom the request is made; or
 - (c) the record contains commercial information contemplated in section 42 in which any other public body has a greater commercial interest, the IO to whom the request is made must as soon as reasonably possible, but in any event within 14 days after the request is received-

- (i) transfer the request to the IO of the other public body or, if there is in the case of paragraph (c) more than one other public body having a commercial interest, the other public body with the greatest commercial interest; and
- (ii) if the public body of the IO to whom the request is made is in possession of the record and considers it helpful to do so to enable the IO of the other public body to deal with the request, send the record or a copy of the record to that IO.

- (2) If a request for access is made to the information officer of a public body in respect of which-
- (a) the record is not in the possession or under the control of the public body of that IO and the IO does not know which public body has possession or control of the record;
 - (b) the record's subject matter is not closely connected to the functions of the public body of that IO and the IO does not know whether the record is more closely connected with the functions of another public body than those of the public body of the IO to whom the request is made; and
 - (c) the record -
 - (i) was created by or for another public body; or
 - (ii) was not so created by or for any public body, but was received first by another public body, the information officer to whom the request is made, must as soon as reasonably possible, but in any event within 14 days after the request is received, transfer the request to the IO of the public body by or for which the record was created or which received it first, as the case may be.

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the IO to whom a request for access is transferred, must give priority to that request in relation to other requests as if it were received by him or her on the date it was received by the IO who transferred the request.
- (4) If a request for access is transferred, any period referred to in section 25 (1) must be computed from the date the request is received by the IO to whom the request is transferred.
- (5) Upon the transfer of a request for access, the IO making the transfer must immediately notify the requester of-
- (a) the transfer;
 - (b) the reasons for the transfer; and
 - (c) the period within which the request must be dealt with.

RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND OR DO NOT EXIST

- (1) If-
 - (a) all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record requested; and
 - (b) there are reasonable grounds for believing that the record-
 - (i) is in the public body's possession but cannot be found; or
 - (ii) does not exist,

the information officer of a public body must, by way of affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the record.

- (2) The affidavit or affirmation referred to in subsection (1) must give a full account of all steps taken to find the record in question or to determine whether the record exists, as the case may be, including all communications with every person who conducted the search on behalf of the IO.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, the notice in terms of subsection (1) is to be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record.
- (4) If, after notice is given in terms of subsection (1), the record in question is found, the requester concerned must be given access to the record unless access is refused on a ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

DEFERRAL OF ACCESS

- (1) If the information officer of a public body decides to grant a request for access to a record, but that record-
 - (a) is to be published within 90 days after the receipt or transfer of the request or such further period as is reasonably necessary for printing and translating the record for the purpose of publishing it;
 - (b) is required by law to be published but is yet to be published; or
 - (c) has been prepared for submission to any legislature or a particular person but is yet to be submitted, the IO may defer giving access to the record for a reasonable period.

- (2) If access to a record is deferred in terms of subsection (1), the IO must notify the requester concerned-
 - (a) That the requester may, within 30 days after that notice is given, make representations to the information officer why the record is required before
 - (b) Of the likely period for which access is to be deferred.
- (3) If a requester makes representations in terms of subsection (2) (a), the IO must, after due consideration of those representations, grant the request for access only if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the requester will suffer substantial prejudice if access to the record is deferred for the likely period referred to in subsection (2) (b).

REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

If an IO fails to give the decision on a request for access to the requester concerned within the period contemplated in section 25 (1), the IO is, for the purposes of this Act, regarded as having refused the request.
