Conditions of Acceptance

Although every effort will be made to meet the wishes of advertisers, acceptance by The Witness of an advert does not guarantee its insertion on a specific date, or at all.

The proprietors also reserve the right to revise, change, alter or delay publication of any advert. They may also reject, even after acceptance for publication, any advert deemed to be untruthful or objectionable in subject matter or wording detrimental to the sale of a competitive brand of article with a fixed retail price, whether space for the said advert has been booked in advance under contract or not. All orders are subject to space being available.

Every direct advertiser and advertising practitioner on whose behalf and/or at whose instance The Witness places an advert indemnifies The Witness against any liability which The Witness may incur to any person (whether in respect of damages, costs or otherwise) in consequence of the publication by The Witness of such advert.

Block Display Adverts
Every effort is made to place block display adverts near the relevant classification. No compensation will be given if, for technical reasons, this cannot be done.

Omissions
Omissions of any of the scheduled insertions shall not be considered to be a breach of the basic conditions of the order. No responsibility is accepted for failure to publish, for any errors in publication, or for any consequences of such errors.

Errors
Please report errors by 10 am on the 1st day of publication. The Witness will not accept responsibility for more than one incorrect insertion of any classified advert or any cost beyond the cost of the space occupied by the incorrect advert. No free insertions or credit will be given for minor typographical errors which do not lessen the value of the advert. Where adverts are booked and the material arrives after deadline or fails to arrive, the space may still be charged for.

Stops
A cancellation number will be issued when a request is made for an advert to be withdrawn. This number MUST be quoted should the advertiser have reason to query the account.

Abbreviations
Only certain accepted newspaper abbreviations can be used in classified advertising and The Witness reserves the right to alter any unacceptable abbreviations in the advertiser's copy.
