PRESS RELEASE – MAYOR HANDS OUT SCHOOL UNIFORMS

22 July 2016

His Worship the Mayor Cllr Chris Ndlela handed out school uniforms to 10 different primary schools for pupils from disadvantaged backgrounds at the City Hall on Thursday the 21st of July 2016. Primary pupils and teachers came in numbers to receive their packages from the Mayor. This is one of the Mayor's Special Projects programmes that have been on-going and 40 primary schools have benefited from this programme so far. The Mayor saluted the work done by the teachers and complemented them for their dedication under the circumstances. "As the municipality what we are doing today is to boost the confidence of the children so they can do better" He said. He urged the learners to work hard towards becoming successful in life, change their communities and the world.
