- (k) is in contravention of one or more of the Municipality's by-laws.

Interpretation of By-laws

2. If there is a conflict of interpretation between the English version of these By-laws and a translated version, the English version prevails.

Objects of By-law

3. The objects of these By-laws are to –

- (a) provide a mechanism for the co-ordinated identification, control and rehabilitation of problem buildings;
- (b) set minimum standards for consultation with owner, and people who occupy or reside in problem buildings; and
- (c) ensure the health and safety of people occupying problem buildings and of the public in general.

Application of By-laws

4. These By-laws apply to all areas which fall under the jurisdiction of the Msunduzi Municipality and is binding on all persons to the extent applicable.

CHAPTER 2 IDENTIFICATION OF PROBLEM BUILDINGS

Notice of intention to declare building a problem building

5. In the event that the Municipality is of the opinion that a building should be declared a problem building, it must serve a written notice on the owner –

- (a) informing the owner that the Municipality intends to declare the building to be a problem building;
- (b) giving reasons why the Municipality intends to declare the building to be a problem building;
- (c) inviting the owner to make written representations, within 14 days of the notice, on why the building should not be declared a problem building; and
- (d) providing an address, fax number or email address to which representations may be submitted.

Declaration of a problem building

6.(1) The Municipality must, after considering any representations received from the owner, as contemplated in section 5, either –

- (a) decide not to declare the building to be a problem building for the time being; or
- (b) declare the building to be a problem building.

(2) In the event that the Municipality decides to declare a building to be a problem building, the Municipality must give written notice to the owner, together with reasons.

CHAPTER 3 CONTROL OF PROBLEM BUILDINGS

Profiling of problem buildings

7.(1) The Municipality must, as soon as is reasonably possible after a building has been declared to be a problem building, undertake an investigation to identify –

- (a) those aspects of the building which are in contravention of these Bylaws or any other applicable law;
- (b) any risks to the safety of the occupiers of the problem building or the public; and
- (c) the occupiers of the problem building and, if the occupiers reside at the building, also profile the occupants to determine the following characteristics of the occupiers:
 - (i) the number of children;
 - (ii) the number of women;

- (iii) the number of disabled people;
- (iv) the number of elderly people;
- (v) the number of people residing per room and the area of each room occupied as a residence; and
- (vi) the total number of people residing in the building.

(2) The owner or the managing agent of the problem building is entitled to be present while the investigation is being undertaken and, if so present, must be given the opportunity to make representations during such investigation.

(3) Where verbal representations have been made in terms of subsection (2) the authorised official must write down such representations and ensure that the owner or the managing agent is given an opportunity to sign such representations.

Ban on new occupants

8. The Municipality may, once a problem building has been profiled, apply to court for an interdict restraining the owner and any managing agent from –

- (a) allowing any other people, in addition to those identified in the profile of occupants, from occupying or residing at the building; and
- (b) filling any vacancy which may arise as a result of any person identified in the profile of occupants vacating the building.

CHAPTER 4

REHABILITATION OF PROBLEM BUILDINGS

Engagement with owners

9.(1) The Municipality must once a problem building has been profiled as contemplated in section 7, serve a further notice on the owner -

- (a) identifying those aspects of the building which are in contravention of these Bylaws or any other applicable law;
- (b) identifying any risks to the safety of the occupiers of the problem building or the public; and
- (c) specifying steps which the owner is obliged to take, within a reasonable period of time specified in the notice, in order to rectify those contraventions or remove those risks.

(2) The steps referred to in paragraph (1)(c) may include, but are not limited to–

- (a) repairs;
- (b) repainting;
- (c) renovations;
- (d) alterations;

- (e) installing proper ablutions;
- (f) demolition;
- (g) enclosing, fencing or otherwise securing the problem building;
- (h) closing the problem building;
- (i) removing all refuse;
- (j) submitting a building plan;
- (k) removing any source of danger or potential danger;
- (l) completing the construction of the problem building or any part of that building;
- (m) appointing and instructing, at the cost of such owner, a competent person to –
 - (i) examine any condition that gave rise to the declaration of a building as a problem building; and
 - (ii) report to the authorised official on the nature and extent of the steps to be taken, which in the opinion of the competent person, need to be taken in order to make the problem building safe;
- (n) giving notice to occupiers to vacate the problem building within a specified time period; and
- (o) complying with any provision of these By-laws or any other law.

Engagement with occupiers

10.(1) If a problem building is occupied, the Municipality must serve a compliance notice on the occupiers and affix a copy of the compliance notice at the main entrance to the building, advising that—

- (a) the building has been declared a problem building;
- (b) the owner has been instructed to take specified steps within a specified period of time;
- (c) where applicable, that the continued occupation of the problem building is unsafe; and
- (d) the Municipality may seek the eviction of the occupiers if the owner fails to comply with the compliance notice.

(2) In the event that the owner of a problem building which is occupied by residents fails to comply with the compliance notice, the Municipality must serve a further notice on the occupiers and affix a copy of the notice at the main entrance to the building—

- (a) advising that the owner of the problem building has failed to comply with the notice;
- (b) where applicable, warning that continued occupation of the problem building is not safe;
- (c) advising that the Municipality intends seeking the eviction of the occupiers;
- (d) listing the details of possible alternative accommodation; and
- (e) providing the contact details of a municipal official available to assist the occupiers in finding alternative accommodation.

Eviction

11. Where the owner of a problem building fails to comply with a compliance notice, the Municipality may, after having complied with the engagement process contemplated in terms of section 10, apply to court for the eviction of the occupiers.

Unsafe problem buildings

12.(1) In the event that the authorised official has reason to believe that the condition of any problem building is such that steps should immediately be taken to protect life or property, he or she may take such steps as may be necessary in the circumstances without having to comply with any other provision of these By-laws and may recover the costs incurred from the owner.

(2) In the event that the authorised official deems it necessary to act in terms of subsection (1) he or she may for the purposes of ensuring the safety of any person, by notice in writing order –

(a) the owner of a problem building to –

(i) remove, within a period specified in the notice, any person residing in or otherwise occupying such problem building; and

(ii) take reasonable steps to ensure that no person who is not authorised by the Municipality enters such problem building; and

(b) any person residing in or otherwise occupying a problem building, to vacate such problem building.

(3) A person may not enter or continue to occupy, use or permit the occupation or use of any problem building in respect of which a notice was served in accordance with subsection (2), unless he or she has been given written permission to do so by the Municipality.

CHAPTER 5 ENFORCEMENT

Entry by authorised official

13.(1) An authorised official may enter any building at any reasonable time with a view to–

(a) determine whether the building should be declared a problem building in terms of these By-laws;

(b) serve any notice required in terms of these By-laws;

(c) determine whether the owner has complied with any compliance notice issued in terms of these By-laws; or

(d) enforce any provision of these by-laws.

(2) A person may not hinder or obstruct an authorised official in the exercise of his or her powers or duties in terms of these By-laws.

(3) An authorised official must, when entering the building as contemplated in subsection (1), produce a valid identification document issued to him or her by the Municipality, to the owner and, if applicable, the managing agent, as well as to any occupier who asks to see the identification document.

Powers of authorised officials

14. An authorised official may, when entering a building –

- (a) inspect, monitor and investigate the building;
- (b) question the owner, the managing agent or any occupier of the building;
- (c) take photos of the building, whether of the outside of the building or any internal aspect of the building, including any residence;
- (d) remove evidence;
- (e) take samples; and
- (f) do anything necessary to implement the provisions of these By-laws.

Service of notices

15.(1) Whenever a compliance notice is required to be served on a person in terms of this By-law, it is deemed to have been effectively and sufficiently served on such person –

- (a) when it has been delivered to him or her personally;
- (b) when it has been left at his or her place of residence or business in the Republic of South Africa with a person apparently over the age of 16 years;
- (c) when it has been posted by registered or certified mail to his or her last known residential or business address in the Republic of South Africa and an acknowledgement of the posting thereof is produced;
- (d) if his or her address in the Republic of South Africa is unknown, when it has been served on his or her agent or representative in the Republic of South Africa in the manner contemplated in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c); or
- (e) if his or her address and agent in the Republic of South Africa are unknown, when it has been affixed to a conspicuous place on the building.

Combined notices

16. The Municipality is not restricted, when issuing a notice in terms of these By-laws for –

- (a) multiple contraventions of the provisions of these By-laws or of any other By-law in respect of a problem building; or

(b) multiple failures or refusals to comply with a compliance notice in terms of these By-laws, to serve a combined notice dealing with all of those contraventions, failures or refusals, as the case may be.

Indemnity

17. The Municipality and any authorised official is not liable for any damage caused by anything lawfully done or omitted by the Municipality or authorised official in carrying out any function or duty in terms of these By-laws.

Lawful instructions

18. Failure to comply with a lawful instruction of an authorised official constitutes a contravention of these By-laws.

Recovery of costs

19.(1) In the event that a person –

(a) contravenes the provisions of these By-lawS or of any other applicable law in respect of a problem building; or

(b) fails or refuses to comply with a compliance notice issued in terms of these By-laws, such person is guilty of an offence and the Municipality may take any steps required to remedy the contravention and recover the costs that were incurred by the municipality to remedy such contravention.

(2) The costs incurred by the Municipality to remedy the contravention may be charged to the owner's municipal account.

Vicarious liability

20.(1) The owner of a problem building whose managing agent or tenant, in the case of a tenant who has the power or obligation to sub-let, maintain and manage the building or portion of the building–

(a) contravenes the provisions of these By-laws or of any other By-law in respect of a problem building; or

(b) fails or refuses to comply with a compliance notice issued in terms of these By-laws, is deemed to have committed such contravention himself or herself, unless the owner can show that he or she took reasonable steps to prevent such contravention: Provided that the fact that –

- (i) the owner issued instructions to the managing agent or tenant, prohibiting such contravention; or
- (ii) a written agreement making the managing agent, tenant or another third party responsible for compliance, does not in itself constitute sufficient proof of such reasonable steps.

(2) The managing agent of a problem building or a tenant in a problem building, in the case of a tenant who has the power or obligation to sub-let, maintain and manage the building or portion of the building, is jointly and severally liable with the owner of such building if the owner –

(a) contravenes the provisions of these Bylaws or of any other applicable law in respect of a problem building; or

(b) fails or refuses to comply with a compliance notice issued in terms of these By-laws, unless the agent or tenant can show that he or she took reasonable steps to prevent such contravention.

Offences

21. Any person who –

- (a) contravenes any provision of these By-laws;
- (b) fails or refuses to comply with a compliance notice;
- (c) fails to comply with any lawful instruction given in terms of these By-laws;
- (d) threatens, resists, interferes with or obstructs any authorised official in the performance of his or her duties or functions in terms of or under these By-laws; or
- (e) deliberately furnishes false or misleading information to an authorised official, is guilty of an offence.

Penalties

22. (1) Any person who is convicted of an offence under these By-laws is liable to –

- (a) a fine of an amount not exceeding R1 000 000;
- (b) imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years;

(c) both such fine and imprisonment contemplated in paragraphs (a) and (b).

(2) In the case of a continuing offence –

(a) an additional fine of an amount not exceeding R5 000; or

(b) imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 days, for each day on which such offence continues, or both such fine and imprisonment, will be imposed.

Presumptions

23. A person charged with an offence in terms of these By-laws who is –

(a) letting a problem building; or

(b) acting as a managing agent in respect of a problem building, is deemed, until the contrary is proved, to have knowingly let or managed a problem building.

(2) If in any prosecution for an offence in terms of these bylaws it is necessary, in order to establish the charge against the accused, to prove that he failed to comply with the requirements of these bylaws Act relating to standard or quality of materials, design or workmanship, an allegation in the charge sheet that such accused so failed, shall be sufficient proof thereof unless the contrary is proved.

CHAPTER 6 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Delegations

24.(1) Subject to the Constitution and applicable national and provincial laws, any –

(a) power, excluding a power referred to in section 160(2) of the Constitution;

(b) function; or

(c) duty,

conferred in terms of these By-laws, upon the Council, or on any of the Municipality's other political structures, political office bearers, councillors or staff members, may be delegated or sub-delegated by such political structure, political office bearer, councillor, or staff member, to an entity within, or a staff member employed by, the Municipality.

(2) A delegation in terms of subsection (1) must be effected in accordance with the system of delegations adopted by the Council in accordance with section 59(1) of the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 2000 (Act No.32 of 2000), subject to the criteria set out in section 59(2) of said Act.

(3) Any delegation contemplated in this section must be recorded in the Register of Delegations, which must contain information on the –

- (a) entity or person issuing the delegation or sub-delegation;
- (b) recipient of the delegation or sub-delegation; and
- (c) conditions attached to the delegation or sub-delegation.

Appeals

25.(1) A person whose rights are affected by a decision taken by the Municipality in terms of these Bylaws may appeal against that decision in terms of the Appeals provision contained in the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 2000 (Act No. 32 of 2000) by giving written notice of the appeal and reasons to the Municipal Manager within 21 days of the date of the notification of the decision.

(2) The Municipal Manager must promptly submit the appeal to the appropriate appeal authority.

(3) The appeal authority must commence with an appeal within six weeks and decide the appeal within a reasonable period.

(4) The appeal authority must confirm, vary or revoke the decision, but no such variation or revocation of a decision may detract from any rights which may have accrued as a result of the decision.

(5) The appeal authority must furnish written reasons for its decision on all appeal matters.

(6) All appeals lodged are done so in terms of the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 2000 (Act No. 32 of 2000) and not in terms of these Bylaws.

(7) Where a conviction has been affirmed by a court of law and the accused wishes to appeal such conviction, the appeal must take place in terms of the court's appeal process and not in terms of subsections (1) to (5).

26. Owner's and occupier's duties not affected

These bylaws shall not be interpreted to detract from any duty imposed by any other law on the owner or an occupier of problem buildings.

Short title and commencement

27. These By-laws may be referred to as the Msunduzi Municipality Problem Buildings By-laws, 2016 and take effect on the date on which it is published in the Provincial Gazette of KwaZulu-Natal.
